Midnight Noon

Does the ball drop after your bedtime? Not this year! Ring in the New Year at the Maryland Science Center for their 7th annual New Year's Eve celebration, Midnight Noon, where children can enjoy the ball drop before bed time.

Craft activities will be available 10:00 a.m. – 2:00 p.m. (while supplies last). Guests can look forward to decorating party hats, constructing noise makers and making glittery snow globes. The festivities continue with the sounds of popular kids band Milkshake as they take the stage at 11:30 a.m.

The entire Science Center will be open and ready for exploration. All activities are free with paid admission (free to members). MSC Box office opens at 10:00 a.m. on the day of this event or purchase your tickets online. For more information, please call 410-545-5980. Food will be available for purchase in Beaker's Café on December 31. Please click here to view a menu.

New Exhibit at the Bernice Kish Gallery

The Bernice Kish Gallery at Slayton House, 10400 Cross Fox Lane, Columbia, Maryland, is pleased to announce a two-person exhibit in the galleries for January and February 2015. David Fried will show his mixed media work (including pieces by his late brother Herschel Fried), entitled "Memories" in the Lobby Gallery and Elaine Hochreiter will show her oil paintings, entitled "Nature's Splendor", in the Bill White Room Gallery. Both exhibits will run from January 8 – February 14, 2015.

David Fried, of Jessup, Maryland, has exhibited in both group and solo shows throughout the region, including Rockland Arts Center, Hoffberger Gallery, ArtMD 2002, 2003, 2004 and 2006, and previous exhibits at Slayton House Gallery. Mr. Fried has received several awards for his work, including Honorable Mention at the ArtMD 2006, and First Place at the Lyric Opera House Invitational. His late brother Herschel Fried exhibited in regional and national exhibitions in Baltimore, New York, Chicago and Illinois. He received favorable reviews for work including the Parisian Magazine of Art, "La Revue Moderne". Before his death in 1968, he also served on the art faculties at Western Illinois University and Millersville College in Pennsylvania.

Elaine Hochreiter, of Laurel, Maryland, has exhibited throughout the region, including the Howard County Arts Council Group Show, Singular Sensations at the Columbia Art Center and previous exhibits at Slayton House Gallery. She has been juried into the Patuxent Art League's Annual Art Exhibitions and the juried Masters' Division of the Central Adirondack Art Show winning First and Second Place awards and the Dodge Pratt Northam Art Center winning a Second Place award. Solo exhibitions have been at the Gallery at Woods, Woods Presbyterian Church and Bowie Senior Center. Ms. Hochreiter additionally exhibits with the Maryland Art League and has also worked as a portrait artist in the charcoal and pastel media.

The community is invited to the artists' reception on Sunday, January 11, 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. For more information, visit <http://www.wildelake.org>.

News from Howard Community College

Registration is now underway for winter and spring classes at Howard Community College. View the schedule of classes for both credit and noncredit classes at www.howardcc.edu/spring. Act fast, winter term starts January 2, and spring classes begin January 26!

Don't let the cost of college stand in your way! Apply now for the new, need-based Pathway Scholarship at Howard Community College. The steps are easy: (1) Be a resident of Howard County, (2) Apply to or currently attend Howard Community College, and (3) Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Learn more at: www.howardcc.edu/pathwayscholarship. Created exclusively for Howard County residents, the Pathway Scholarship was made possible by the generosity of the former Howard County Executive and the Howard County Council.

Are you prepared for winter weather? To provide drivers with skills to safely travel in winter, HCC is offering Advanced Driving Skills, a course that teaches braking, crash and skid avoidance, and safe recovery skills. Students will learn in a classroom setting, test their skills in their own vehicles, and then practice how to handle skids with the instructor in the new HCC Skid-Vehicle, which allows the driver to safely experience a full range of environmental changes from dry to wet to black ice. Learn more about upcoming course dates at <http://coned.howardcc.edu/motorcycle-and-driver-safety/courses/drivingskills/index.html>.

Visual and Performing Arts Summer Camps

Don't wait until the last minute... registration opens in January for the Howard County Center for the Arts annual summer camps. Sign up early and choose from a wide range of creative opportunities for your child. Camps are open to students entering grades K–7. Full- or half-day sessions and before- and after-care are available. For complete details or to register, visit the Classes and Camps page after January 5.
